

Upper Chesapeake Endocrinology Associates, located in Havre de Grace, MD, has an opportunity for a full /part time experienced adult Nurse Practitioner (NP) with CDE training. Patient mix is split approximately 60% diabetes and 40% general endocrinology. Prior diabetes and endocrine management experience required.

Successful candidate will have successfully completed accredited program with appropriate certification exams. Current licensure in Maryland and ACLS, BCLS, and CDE certification required. NP will be a hospital employed with generous salary and benefits. The practice utilizes an electronic health record.

Harford County, MD is a thriving suburban community with ready access to larger metropolitan areas such as Baltimore, Philadelphia, and Washington D.C. Community is noted for safe neighborhoods, a strong school system, and diverse employment opportunities.

For additional information about this exciting opportunity contact Marian Whitlock at (410) 398-0258, email Whitlock_uch@yahoo.com.

